90.5% Of students reported their ASP teachers mostly or always listened to them

87.5% LAB Students reported their teachers wanted them to do their best

90.9% Families reported positive academic outcome was why they wanted their student to continue LAB

90.9% Family members reported being involved in their student’s education

100% Of students seeking credit gained credit.

Students say:
"I like the extra help."
"I get support if needed."

Families say: "I like that my high school student is involved in a positive school activity with peers."
"I like that she can get academic help in a positive way with a smaller group of people or even one on one help."

https://www.k12northstar.org/lathrop