

ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATION1041.1 Freedom of Speech & Assembly*Symbolic Expression – Dress and Appearance*

Students have the right to dress in a manner which expresses an ethnic, religious, or political point of view. Students also have a responsibility to dress and act in a manner which is appropriate for school.

Students' school attire should adhere to accepted standards of decency, should not pose a threat to public or personal health and safety, or be disruptive or distracting to classroom activity or pupil behavior. Apparel with prohibited slogans or designs printed on them will not be allowed. Whenever there is a disagreement between the school and the student about appearance, admission to class will not be permitted until the problem has been resolved with the student's parent or guardian.

Life is full of choices. Students have the right to choose both their actions and their own style of dress every day. They also have a responsibility to make good choices. The school staff has the responsibility to make professional judgments regarding the appropriateness of those actions and dress based upon standards stated above. A student's manner of dress would be considered inappropriate if it were "unusual" enough to distract either other students or the teacher from educational activities in the classroom or to disrupt the positive, safe climate on campus.

The following may not be worn at school:

- ✓ Head gear of any type. No head gear may be worn or visible from the time a student enters school until the time a student leaves school. This applies to headgear of any kind, including but not limited to: hats, bandanas, scarves, sweatbands, do-rags, etc. Outside hats may be put on in the school lobby.
- ✓ Articles of clothing, accessories, or footwear that advertise, depict, or condone the use of alcohol, drugs, tobacco, violence, inappropriate language, or sexual behavior/innuendo, purposeful harm to oneself, suicide, gang membership, or gang behavior.
- ✓ Articles of clothing, accessories, or footwear that signify gang affiliation. Known styles of gang-related dress, as verified by local authorities, shall not be worn, possessed, or displayed at school, or at any school sponsored events. This may include pants that sag (pants must be worn at the waist even if a shirt covers the waistline), a single raised pant leg, bandanas, or similar looking items worn as an accessory; colors, symbols or numbers representing or having special significance within gang culture; sports clothing of specific teams; beads and necklaces; belt buckles with gang initials; gang themed t-shirts with gang photos, prison scenes, graffiti, or slogans. Display of body tattoos which are gang-related are also prohibited and must be covered during school hours and at school events. Should other possible displays or styles of gang-related dress come to the attention of school officials, local authorities will verify it, unless it becomes a disruption beforehand.
