Step One: Choose Your Program

Determine whether you are interested in volunteering as an individual through the Mentor & Volunteer Placement (MVP) Program or as part of an organization through the Partners in Education (PIE) Program.

Step Two: Choose Your Track

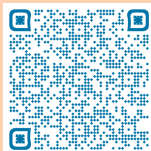

Track A

A volunteer that will have direct contact with students NOT ALWAYS within sight and sound of a school district employee.

Track B

A volunteer that may have direct contact with students but ALWAYS be within sight and sound of a school district employee.

Step Three: Fill Out the Interest Survey

The Volunteer Interest Survey collects information needed to become a volunteer in the school district and guides you through all required training and paperwork. tinyurl.com/BFFinterestsurvey

Step Four: Complete HR Application

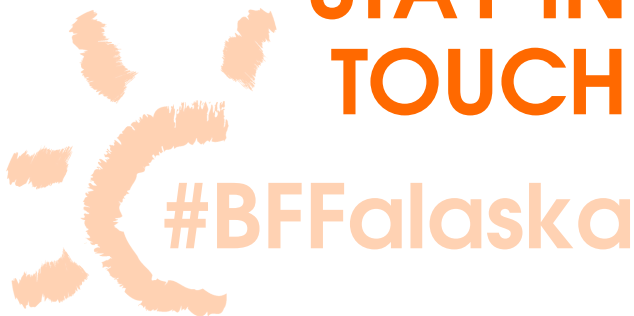

TRACK A ONLY

Track A volunteers are required to complete an HR Volunteer Application and background check that is screened and approved by the Human Resources Department before they begin their volunteer duties. Directions on this process are incorporated in the Volunteer Interest Survey.

Step Five: Volunteer!

We love to help volunteers and partners find the perfect match! If you already know where and how you would like to volunteer, contact the school/department directly. If you don't know where you would like to volunteer, we will match you to the right program and location based on your skills and the needs of the school/department.

VOLUNTEER STATEMENT

Volunteering in the Fairbanks North Star Borough School District is a privilege, not a right. Volunteers provide support services but are not substitutes for the professional staff. Volunteers are always expected to work under the direction and supervision of school district administration and school staff.

520 Fifth Avenue, Fairbanks, Alaska, 99701

The Fairbanks North Star Borough School District is an equal employment and educational opportunity institution, as well as a tobacco and nicotine-free learning and work environment.

MENTOR & VOLUNTEER PLACEMENT

Mentors and volunteers are individuals who donate their time to schools and district departments to assist with activities that enhance instruction, promote learning, and provide support to students and staff. All MVPs must fill out the Volunteer Interest Survey.

EXAMPLES OF MENTOR AND VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

Provide learning support as a tutor, mentor, or classroom speaker

Be a lunch buddy for an at-risk student

Help with secretarial duties in a school or department

Help organize classroom events

Help with special school and districtwide events such as Spelling Bee and Science Fair

Chaperone field trips

DONOR ADVISING

In addition to placing mentors and volunteers and matching partners, Bright Futures Fairbanks also advises donors. Donors are individuals or organizations who give a one-time donation of cash or in-kind value directly to the district. Contact Bright Futures Fairbanks and we will help connect you to schools and/or programs with needs that match your philanthropic interests.

PARTNERS IN EDUCATION MATCHING

Partners are groups of volunteers or donors that are associated with an organization. They have a designated point of contact that develops a relationship and provides support to students and staff on an ongoing basis. All PIEs must fill out the Volunteer Interest Survey.

EXAMPLES OF PARTNERSHIP IN ACTION

Sponsor school activities with a financial contribution

Offer paid release time for employees to volunteer

Provide students with internships or job shadowing opportunities

Organize a food pantry or school supply drive

Send staff to be mentors, tutors, or guest speakers

Support end of semester student recognition programs
