

Responding to Military Children with Exceptional Needs™

Responding to Military Children with Exceptional Needs™ is a professional development institute designed to inform concerned adults about military-connected children with exceptional needs and the issues they may face as they transition from school to school.

Learning Outcomes:

- ▶ Identify the amplified transition challenges that impact mobile military-connected students with exceptional needs
- ▶ Analyze processes that support transitioning children with exceptional needs
- ▶ Develop strategies that ease the transition experience, in conjunction with existing resources
