

The Cost of Senior Year

Senior year is a busy year but it can also be a costly one! From prom to exams to graduation costs, it all adds up. Here is what to expect.

Graduation: Announcement packages start at $130 and go up to $280.00 Packages vary as to what they include.

Announcements only: $1.25 each Cap, gown, and tassel only: $38.00

Other graduation memorabilia: This includes senior sweatshirt, diploma frames, ect $40-$200

Class ring- $300- $700, depending on how fancy you want to go

Graduation party- $100 and up

Senior pictures- This can range anywhere from $300- $1000

Yearbook- Starts at $50

College applications- $20-$80 for each school you apply to

SAT/ACT exams- $52.50-$54.50

AP exams- $89

NCAA registration fee-$75

Dances- Tickets are $40-$50 per person plus other dance related items such as formal wear, flowers, photos, dinner..... Could cost up to $500

Fines and fees- All unpaid class fees and lost or damaged book fees will be required to be paid before your student receives his/her diploma

Prices are as of December, 2014.